

About the Cover: This week's cover art was created by Velma Peck, who has loved drawing and creating since childhood. While she doesn't consider herself a painter, she finds great joy in working with ink, capturing the beauty of God's creation. Her sketch of a wilderness path, dappled with sunrise light, invites us to notice the gifts of the great outdoors and the creativity God plants within each of us. Velma reminds us to keep fostering this gift of imagination with the children around us.

Proposed Church Structure Update

Packets for our Fall Business Meeting are in church mailboxes today. Each packet includes the Narrative Budget, the detailed 2025–2026 budget, and the proposed new church structure. Please take time over the next two weeks to review these materials so you can come to our Sunday, September 7 congregational meeting prepared to discuss the proposed budget and church structure, and to vote on whether to affirm them.

Help Us Update the Church Directory!

It's time to refresh our North Goshen Church Directory, and we need your help! This week, you'll find a form in your church mailbox for your current contact information. Please take a few moments to fill it out with your address, phone numbers, and email addresses.

We're also asking how you prefer to receive information from the church — whether that's by email, phone call, printed copy, or our new churchwide text message system. This new tool allows us to send out timely prayer requests and last-minute updates, like weather cancellations or reminders for church events.

Please return your updated form to the church office or place it in the designated basket by next Sunday, August 31. Thank you for helping us stay connected and keep everyone in the loop!

Stay Connected: Newsletter & Bulletin Submissions

Each Friday, we send out a weekly email newsletter filled with stories, announcements, upcoming events, and important updates from across our church life. If you prefer a printed copy, no problem — just let Belen or Becky know, and we'll make sure one finds its way to you each week.

Wayfinding: Discerning God's Path

Following Jesus was never meant to be a solo journey. Beginning today, we'll walk alongside the early church as they navigate disagreements, discern new directions, and learn to see God's path with fresh eyes. Just like those first followers, our own community is made up of different cultures, perspectives, and experiences—and God's Spirit is still leading us together. Through scripture, story, and prayer, we'll listen for the Spirit's voice and explore how to follow Jesus faithfully as a diverse, united body today.

Join Our Visitation Team

At North Goshen, we believe that being the church means showing up for one another - in worship, in our neighborhoods, and in the quiet, everyday moments of life. Some in our church family are not able to be physically present in our gatherings, yet they remain an essential part of our shared life of faith.

We are forming a Visitation Team to help nurture these connections. Team members will regularly visit those in our community who can't come to church in person, offering a listening ear, prayer, and the gift of presence. This is one way we live into Jesus' call to love our neighbors, bearing one another's burdens and celebrating joy together.

If you feel called to help extend our circle of care in this way, please connect with Becky to learn more.
